- 8. I acknowledge that the WGA may accomplish the publication of this Material through one or more designated contractors or representatives performing services on the WGA's behalf ("Designee").
- 9. I understand that my permission will entitle the WGA to store the Material on servers and other hosting platforms under control of the WGA, and/or a Designee.
- 10. I understand that I may request that certain aspects of the Material may be hidden from view when the Material is published outside of World Glaucoma Week. Such requests must be reasonable in nature and should be made in writing and sent by email to info@worldglaucoma.org.
- 11. I represent and warrant that the Material is original and that I am the author and legally entitled to grant this permission, and that I am not bound by any restrictions from third parties, such as research institutes, my employer, coauthors, sponsors or financiers.
- 12. Because neither the WGA, nor any Designee will be making any changes in the substance of the Material, except for necessary technical manipulations and language changes required for accurate translation, neither I nor anyone acting on my behalf shall hold the WGA, nor any Designee liable for any claims, actions or damages resulting from the publication, viewing or use of the Material.
- 13. I shall hold the WGA, and/or its Designee harmless against (a) any claims from third parties that the Material infringe the rights of such third parties and/or (b) any claims that result from the use of the Material by the WGA and the WGA Audience.
- 14. Although the WGA forbids the WGA Audience from republishing any of the Materials accessible via WGA Communications, I agree that neither the WGA, nor its Designee can be held liable for any such unauthorised republication by the WGA Audience.
- 15. In the event I become aware of any content-related problems (such as but not exclusively: copyright clearance issues; mistakes in the accuracy of information, accidental disclosure of protected information, etc.), I will inform the WGA immediately in writing.
- 16. In all instances, the WGA reserves the right to remove the Material from the WGA Communications at any time and without notice.
- 17. I represent that the personal data contained in the Material is either:
- 1. made duly anonymous/de-identified (with no direct or indirect link to a person); or
  - 2. if it is explicit out of necessity, that specific consent relating to the processing of the personal data for the purposes of the Publishing Authorisation has been duly sought and obtained in full compliance with the applicable data protection laws. Personal data includes but is not limited to the special categories of personal data (e.g. health data, genetic and biometric data) which have been processed prior to the date of the Publishing Authorisation and which were for the purposes of the scientific research, and as such may be referred to in the Material.
- 18. I will transmit any notice to be provided under this Publishing Authorisation in writing and sent by email to: info@worldglaucoma.org.
- 19. This declaration is governed by the laws of The Netherlands. Any dispute about this Publishing Authorisation and/or the publication shall be exclusively submitted to the district court in Amsterdam, The Netherlands.
